Volume 2, Issue 31

April 19, 2024

Fostering communication with the community by sharing worthwhile information with residents, as well as identifying happenings throughout Plumsted Township and vicinity.

- Passover begins at sundown on April 22. "During the sacred holiday of Passover, Jewish families around the world give thanks to G-d for liberating the Jewish people from bondage in Egypt and delivering them to the promised land of Israel," President Donald Trump.

- New Egypt Elks Lodge 2457 held their Installation of Officers Ceremony on April 13. At that function, Exalted Ruler, Gina Mellon, presented an award to Christian Nevers, New Egypt Marketplace owner(r), in Grateful Appreciation of his service to the Lodge. Additionally, Plumsted Deputy Mayor Herb Marinari (l), owner of Big Woods Farm and Nursery, was presented the Elks Distinguished Citizen Award. Congratulations gentlemen!

- Pastor John Burlaga and the Hornerstown Baptist Church are sponsoring an Outreach Event on April 20 at the Charleston Coffee House, 611 County Rd. 539, New Egypt. The church invites you to enjoy a $10.00 gift card with any purchase between 6am and 2pm.

- The Plumsted Council for the Arts promotes the arts throughout our community while encouraging and providing a platform for township residents to tap into their creativity. The Council's first information session will be held at Studio '533 (27 Main Street, 2nd Floor), April 24 at 1pm. If you partake in the arts in any form—photography, music, literature, painting, theater, culinary, sculpture, digital, landscape, etc.- please join us. Email Committeeman Bowen at rbowen@plumsted.org for more details.

Plumsted Mayor Dominick Cuzzo welcomes residents to his next "Meet the Mayor" event, hosted by the Plumsted Branch of the Ocean County Library. It will take place on April 27 at 119 Evergreen Rd., New Egypt, from 10:15am until 12:30pm in the library meeting room. Contact Mayor Cuzzo directly at (865)604-3618 to secure a time slot for a one-on-one discussion.
